

A Prayer of Submission

Father, I feel overwhelmed whenever I think about my relationship with my supervisor. Thank You for being a generous God and promising to give me wisdom if I would only ask and not doubt. I desperately need Your supernatural wisdom about how to relate with and respect my supervisor. Therefore, I will walk in grace and respond with a gentle answer even when my supervisor treats me with anger or harshness.

I will do all things without murmuring or complaining; instead, I will have the same attitude as Christ Jesus: total humility. I confess that every word I speak and everything I do is characterized by genuine humility, authentic honor, and pure love. I refuse to pay back evil for evil, rather I always try to do good to everyone—even those who attack and harass me without reason. I choose to be submissive to my superior with all respect, even when he/she is being unreasonable or difficult.

Most days, I feel weary and weak from dealing with this stressful situation, but Your strength and power sustain me. And even though I face many trials and troubles, You rescue me every time. I will wait patiently for You, Lord; I know You hear my cry. You will bring me up out of this horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock. You will establish my steps for Your glory. May my actions and words help my supervisor to see Your goodness and cause him/her to want to know You too.

In Jesus's name, amen.
