

A Prayer of Connection

Father, help me to surround myself with people who are not only godly examples but also professional examples for me to align myself with. I understand that just as iron sharpens iron, one person sharpens another. I'm trusting You to bring people into my life so we can sharpen each other spiritually, professionally, and personally. As I walk with the wise, I will become wise; I will not be a companion of fools which will lead to my suffering and harm. I confess that I am blessed because I do not walk in step with the wicked or stand in the way that sinners take or sit in the company of mockers.

I will choose my companions and business associates carefully. I will not yoke myself with unbelievers, for what do righteousness and wickedness have in common? Or what fellowship can light have with darkness? I despise the assembly of evildoers and refuse to sit with the wicked. I will limit my association with people who are deceitful or hypocritical as much as it's in my power to do so.

Just as one generation shall commend your works to another, and shall declare your mighty acts, I will share my knowledge and invest in others professionally, personally, and spiritually. I will be reverent in my behavior, teach what is good, and train others how to live the good life according to Your ways, Father. I will demonstrate self-control, a good work ethic, a submissive and respectful attitude in my personal and professional life to bring honor to Your name.

Thank You, Father. Amen.
